

KLove is a radio station that I have enjoyed the past two years. I am very distressed to hear that it might not be on the air. KLove serves me as a resident of my community by providing positive and encouraging Christian music that is commercial free. The DJs are uplifting and encouraging as well. I have listened to other Christian radio stations in the past, but none of them compare to the wonder of KLove. KLove is the only Christian radio station that is commercial free in the area. This gives KLove the advantage to reach people for the Kingdom of God without losing someone during a commercial. Face it when commercials come most people start channel surfing to find one that is playing music. The news casts heard on KLove are positive and encouraging as well. They bring you the current news, but put a happy side to the story rather than the same upsetting ideas. My community needs this kind of encouragement, especially being so close to Ft. Hood military base. I don't know of any other radio station that prays for their listeners on a constant basis. Please, reconsider the thought of removing KLove from the radio. People are being reached through KLove on a daily basis.
